WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 .- Secretary Shaw has issued a circular to passengers arriving in the United States from foreign countries regarding examination of baggage, passengers' declarations, exemptions from duty, etc., which will be sent to each passenger as far as possible before embarking on outgoing steamers. As to exemptions from duty, the secretary, following a recent decision of the Circuit Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, holds in effect that each returning passenger, a resident of the United States, may bring into the country, free of duty, articles purchased abroad, except cigars and cigarettes, in excess of fifty of the former and three hundred of the latter, for himself or any other person, up to the amount of $100, provided they are not intended for sale. The text of the circular is

States are required to make a declaration under oath of all dutiable articles obtained by them abroad upon a blank furnished by the government to an acting deputy collector, who will board the vessel at quaran-

Chief Clerk of the Rural Free Delivery Division Testifies at the Fraud Trial.

MRS. LORENZ IN TEARS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 .- The defense in the postal trial opened to-day. Mr. Maddox, on behalf of the Groffs, said he would prove that George E. Lorenz in 1895 had purchased for $500 a one-half interest in the Groff fastener. He was followed by Mr. Kumler for the Lorenzes, who asserted that as far back as 1888 Machen, George E. Lorenz and his brother engaged in the oil business in Ohio, and that as a result of their various transactions George E. Lorenz owed Machen $25,000, and that whatever money Lorenz paid to Machen was in settlement of an honest debt. Conrad Syme, on behalf of Machen, agreed with what Mr. Maddox and Mr. Kumler had said, and added that he would prove there was no

When Mr. Kumler, in the course of his pening remarks, said that Mrs. Lorenz had been scandalized by the government, which had treated her with cruelty, Mrs. Lorenz broke down and wept bitterly. She was led from the room by Mrs. Machen and Mrs. Phillips, Mr. Machen's sister. She recovered her composure during the recess and occupied her accustomed place in

The first witness for the defense was Miss Ina S. Liebhardt, chief clerk of the rural free delivery division, who had testified for the government. She gave in great detail a statement of the administrative duties of the superintendent of the free delivery division, and said that since 1901 she had placed Machen's name and initials on nearly every paper going out of the free delivery division, and that prior to that date she had taken similar action with respect to at signed Machen's initials or name to at least three hundred papers a day, and that many of them related to Groff fasteners. This, she testified, was done in a routine manner, because the Groff fastener had become a fixed supply. She also testified that various officials of the Postoffice Department were aware that she placed Machen's initials and signature on official papers. Miss Liebhardt said that a great deal of Machen's time was taken up in interviewing congressmen and postmasters regarding the extension of the rural free delivery. said that frequently while engaged in such conversations Machen would sign or initial letters. It was brought out that the order given the Groffs for the fasteners at the reduced price of $1.25 each was dated July 15, 1899, and was signed by Machen himself. Miss Liebhardt was then called on to idenify various initials and signatures of Machen to certain vouchers and warrants for Groff fasteners, some of which she said were placed thereon by herself and others by Machen personally. Miss Liebhardt said that in all these transactions Machen never in any way had indicated to her to increase the number of fasteners and never had directed her to take any steps to hurry for- retary Root rescued it from the millions ward the approval of bills. For Death or Relief -Heart Disease.

Dizzy Spells, Pain and Choking.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Saved My Life.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sure to do what no other medicine can do. If your heart troubles you, you cannot afford delay or mistake in choice of a remedy. For many years this preparation has been curing cases that otherwise would not have been cured. Read what it has done for others. It will do the same for you: "I write you this letter through gratitude for the benefit I have received by taking your valuable remedies. For three years I was subject to dizzy spells, sometimes several in a day. When I had them I could not raise my head from the pillow. My heart was greatly affected and I frequently had spells of severe palpitation and fluttering, pain, tenderness, choking sensations, could not lie on my left side and was not able to do any work. I called a doctor who helped me some but the dizzy spells grew more fre quent and I was so very nervous that I did not care to live. One day I asked the Lord to take me from this world or put my eyes on something that would help me. The first paper I took up was a New York paper and in it I saw your advertising. My husband got me three bottles of Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine and one box of Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills since which time I have had no more dizzy spells. I can lie on either side and sleep all night. I have been able to do my own work for three years. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure saved my life."—Mrs. R. H. Burch, Burch, S. D.

Book Written by General Upton Twenty-Five Years Ago, but Just Published.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28 .- The War Department has just published a remarkable book entitled "The Military Policy of the United States," by the late General Emery Upton. General Upton's military career, according to Secretary Root, who directed orders were not brought to Machen's atthis publication, was one of exceptional excellence and brilliance and no one, it is believed, was more fit than he to undertake work. He had not only the widest experience in the field during the civil war, but he had a perfect genius for organization and tactics. These attainments he supobserve the workings of the military systems of that continent, one of the results of which was the revolution of military tactics of the United States army. Although written a quarter of a century ago, this work on military policy was never before published by the government. Sec of documents in the archives of the War Department, and has caused it to be published, for the reason that General Upton's plans and recommendations were prophetic and are as sound to-day as the day they
